
Special Book Presentation

Jeremy W. R. Whitehand

Glasgow

Pingyao

Haitabu

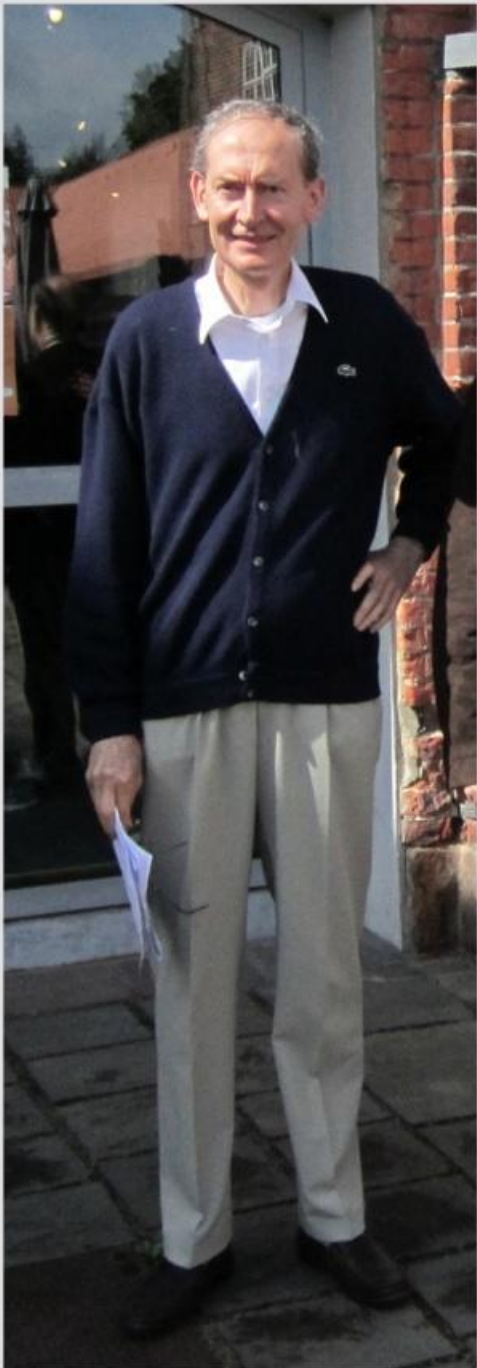

Suzhou

Seoul

Ouro Preto

Air-conditioned fieldwork

Burgage-sniffing

Specially-equipped urban morphologist

Jeremy

Morphological agents in suburban Birmingham

SHAPERS of

Urban Form

Explorations in Morphological Agency

Edited by Peter Larkham and Michael Conzen

Summary of the Contents

ISBN: 978-0-415-73890-3
Routledge 360 pp.

Foreword Samuels

Introduction

- 1 Agents, Agency, and Urban Form
Larkham and Conzen

Agency in pre-Modern (Medieval) Settings

- 2 Royal Authority Lilley
- 3 Ecclesiastical Authority Slater
- 4 Urban Corporate Governance Simms

Agency in Early Modern Settings

- 5 Absolutist Authority – Potsdam Arntz-Thomas
- 6 Reconsidering Haussmann in Paris Darin
- 7 Colonial Regime Change and Urban Form –
Novo-Arkhangel'sk in Alaska Conzen

Agency in Industrial-Era Settings

- 8 Squeezing Railroads into UK and US Cities Krim
- 9 Housing Polish industrial Workers & Their Bosses
Koter and Kulesza
- 10 Shaping a Scottish Garden Suburb Pacione
- 11 Owner-Builders in Industrial Peoria (US) Harris

Agency in Late Modern and Postmodern Settings

- 12 Modernism against History – Italian Architectural Debates Marzot
- 13 Re-Planning British Cities after World War II
Larkham
- 14 Late-Flowering Modernism in Megastructural
Cumbernauld New Town Gold
- 15 Re-Shaping New Zealand Waterfronts Gu
- 16 Imagery in Re-Shaping Postmodern Birmingham
Hall and Hubbard

Envoi

- 17 Agents and Agency: Theorizing Emergent Built
Environments Kropf

This book is dedicated to

Jeremy William Richard Whitehand

Imaginative contributor to, patient teacher in, and tireless advocate for the international study of urban morphology and its relevance in shaping urban futures over more than half a century

